

IMPORTANT TICA NEWS.

TICA is delighted to announce a new membership category.

Tennis Ireland qualified coaches have always had the option of becoming full members of TICA. For those TI qualified coaches who for whatever reason have not signed up for full membership, we are pleased to be able to offer the option for the first time of becoming an Associate Member of TICA.

Associate membership carries many (though obviously not all) of the benefits attached to full membership. We hope it will be attractive to those coaches who perhaps coach only a few hours a week, or maybe only at certain times of the year, yet want to keep up to date with what is happening year round.

Associate Membership costs 49 euro per year (as against full membership at 125 euro). With regard to benefits, here is how the two options stack up:

FULL MEMBER BENEFITS
